Aventure Named Fayette County's Small Business of the Year

Aventure Aviation is honored to have been selected as the 2011 Small Business of the Year in Fayette County, Georgia. The evaluation criteria used by the Fayette Chamber of Commerce included the business mission, philosophy, long-term goals, demonstrated growth and community involvement, among other traits.

The announcement was made on January 20th at the Chamber's Annual Meeting and Awards Luncheon. Aventure's President, Zaheer Faruqi was there to receive the award. "This achievement validates the several years of hard work, the commitment to our customers and our dedication to the community," Mr. Faruqi stated.

Within the last two years, Aventure Aviation has added ten jobs at its location in Peachtree City, GA. This was enabled by the addition of the military division and the increase of sales in the commercial division. A company which began with only three employees, Aventure now has a total of twenty-two employees at its Peachtree City location and seven overseas reps. Aventure Aviation cares about its community and providing good jobs to local people. Aventure Aviation is a proud member of the Fayette County Chamber of Commerce and is involved in several community services such as feeding the Homeless and Hungry with "Taking it to the Street", "Charity Water", "Habitat for Humanity", and "Cancer Relay for Life". Mr. Zaheer Faruqi also serves on the board of Atlanta Regional Airport Authority.
